

General Information

Field of knowledge: Public Health

Speciality: Dentistry

Degree of higher education and title of qualification: Master of Dentistry.
Dentist

The official name of the educational program: Educational and professional programme. Dentistry.

Subject area of the educational programme: The object of activity is: preservation of health, in particular, dental; prevention, diagnosis and treatment of human dental diseases.

Orientation of the educational program: Educational and professional. Emphasis on the professional activities of a dentist, which ensures the preservation of health, in particular dental, prevention and treatment of human dental diseases at all levels.

Features of the program: Implemented by combining theoretical and practical training in small groups and optimally combines practical and theoretical training.

Diploma type: Master's degree

Term of study: 5 years

Cycle / level of higher education: The second (master's) level of higher education; NQF - level 8; QF-LLL - level 7; FQ-EHEA - the second cycle

Prerequisites: Complete general secondary education, previously obtained educational and qualification level of a Junior Specialist (Bachelor) in the specialty "Dentistry", "Prosthetic Dentistry", "Dentistry", "General Medicine", "Nursing".

Language (s) of teaching: Ukrainian, English, Russian

Employment: A dental professional is prepared to work according to national KWED DK 009: 2010: Section Q. Public Health and Social Aid. Section 86. Public Health Group 86.2 Medicine and Dental Practice Class 86.23 Dental practice

After graduating from the educational-professional program in the specialty "Dentistry", the specialist is able to perform professional work: intern (PC code - 3229); trainee doctor (PC code - 3221); resident doctor (CP code - XXX).

Continuing education: Opportunity to study according to the programs of the third level of higher education (internship). After completing an internship in "Dentistry", a dental professional has the right to: - continue postgraduate studies in the educational and scientific programme for the degree of Doctor of Philosophy; - to acquire another specialty, which gives the opportunity to hold a relevant medical position and perform relevant professional work.